

2020 Nominating Committee Nominees – two-year terms

Susan Beacham

Susan enjoys serving in the community as well as at Calvary. She loves her small group and encourages everyone to join one. Susan works in real estate and find that very rewarding. She is married to John and has two children.

Jerry Hagen

Jerry is excited about Calvary's goal to reach out to our community. He is retired and is married to Sue and has three adult children and four grandchildren.

Julie Holmen

Julie has loved serving in music ministry and has also served on the Church Council at Calvary. Her favorite part of Calvary's five-year vision is "No Child Without 5 Adults on their Team". She loves the idea of providing children with strong spiritual foundations and a deep relationship with Jesus. Julie is single and works for Cigna.

Dave Kufahl

Dave has led small groups for years, but especially loves to lead groups with a Bible study component, where you can see others grow in their relationship with Jesus. He is excited about Calvary's goal of "No Inch Unused", as we look to use our facility to benefit our neighbors. Dave is retired and married to Kay. They have three grown children, who have children.

Cindy Luukkonen

Cindy loves serving in leadership in Calvary's Women's Ministry. She is excited about the five-year vision and loves teaching and encouraging women. She also loves the concept of people growing in faith in circles not rows, as people join together to face life together, supporting one another. Cindy is an accountant and is married to Mark.

Scott Madson

Scott and his wife Andrea are small group leaders that have seen their faith grow while making great friends in the process. He is most excited about Calvary's goal to have "No Kid without Five Adults on their Team". This is goal is exciting because children's ministry was so important to their family. Scott is a Senior Consultant with an accounting firm and is married with two adult sons.

Lynn Metzler

Lynn is a group leader for Women in the Word and loves that the women get to know their Savior each week, while having a great time together. Her favorite part of Calvary's vision is "No Inch Unused" and is excited to bring the community into our building and partner with other ministries. Lynn is married to Steven and has two adult sons and four grandchildren.

Mark Pedersen

Mark's love of working with kids is reflected in his years of coaching Calvary basketball teams as well as his excitement about the five-year vision to have "No Kid without 5 Adults on their Team." He feels that kids and their families need to know the saving love of Jesus. Mark is an accountant, married to Susan with two adult children.

Melanie Racer

Melanie's years of serving in MOPs, loving young moms and creating community was a favorite place to serve. Women in the Word has also been key in growing her faith, as she has stayed grounded while raising a busy family. Melanie is excited about "No Inch Unused" as we invite the community into our facility. Melanie is a stay at home mom, married to Dan with four children.

Jill Saatzer

Jill has been invested in kids and youth at Calvary since her sons were young. She loves the honesty they bring and loves how their fresh new thoughts keep her on her toes. She is most excited about Calvary's vision of "No Person Left Alone", because she loves when people come together in community to grow in faith. She is married to Randy and has two young adult sons.
